Homework 3

Stories from book's Reddit clone:

- i. As a user, I want to like articles so that popular articles float to the top of the page.
- ii. As a user, I want to dislike articles so that unpopular or offensive articles are pushed to the bottom of the page.
- iii. As a user, I want to submit my favorite articles so that others can see and comment on them.
- iv. As a user, I want to view a list of the most popular articles so that I can read and enjoy others' suggestions.

1a.

- i. As an administrator, I want to describe the violation so that users are aware of the reasoning behind the decision.
- ii. As an administrator, I want to move violating posts to the bottom of the screen so that users do not see them before other articles.
- iii. As an administrator, I want articles to be removed from the site entirely when the user does not correct them so that other users are not exposed to the violation.
- iv. As an administrator, I want to be able to immediately remove posts so that extreme violations are removed as soon as possible.
- v. As an administrator, I want users to become banned for 1 week if their violations are not corrected so that they are encouraged to not repeat their mistakes.
